NJ Home Remodeling Contractor Somerville Aluminum Embraces Partnership with Great Lakes Window

NJ Home Remodeler Somerville Aluminum is proud to be associated with Great Lakes Window

SOMERVILLE, NJ, August 30th, 2011— Somerville Aluminum is proud to be distinguished as a dealer of Great Lakes Windows. Maintaining a working relationship exceeding 25 years with the vinyl window company, Somerville Aluminum is able to provide its customers with the highest quality replacement windows in NJ, with exceptional customer service.

Great Lakes Window, based in Walbridge, OH, is one of the nation's oldest manufacturers of all-vinyl custom replacement windows and patio doors. Since its inception in 1981, Great Lakes Window is one of the nation's highest quality window replacement manufacturers, having produced over 8 million vinyl replacement windows and doors for homeowners in 48 states. All Great Lakes Window products are made with state-of-the-art technology, modern equipment, and cutting edge operational techniques.

Aluminum in his commitment to creating a lasting partnership, Pfeiffer explained, "Somerville Aluminum is a long-standing customer of Great Lakes Window that we appreciate every day. Their dedication to customer service, their honesty and loyalty are traits not only of the people, but also of the organization as a whole. When we look for new business partners, we hold all others up to comparison with Somerville Aluminum."

Ralph Pfeiffer, Director of Marketing at Great Lakes Window, recognized Somerville

Somerville Aluminum is proud to be associated with a company of Great Lakes Window's caliber; Co-Owner of Somerville Aluminum, Gary Shiman was enthusiastic about the solid relationship the two companies have built over the past couple decades, "We really embrace our relationship with Great Lakes Window," Shiman explained, "When we work so closely with a company, we can work with them to help improve their product, ensuring high quality production. It's great to have an open-minded two-way street where we can help each other improve our businesses and provide the customers with the best products and coverage possible."

"Being that our relationship goes back over 25 years, it means a lot to our homeowners in the sense that we can solve any problems quickly and efficiently without the bureaucratic hierarchy that is typically found with large companies. Working with Great Lakes is seamless," continued Shiman, "With such an open, solid relationship, we are able to set up yearly promotions with them as well, to react to market conditions and the needs of our customers in a timely manner. This way, our customers get the best prices on the best products; being able to discuss incentives quickly with Great Lakes Window is invaluable, it's the key to both of our successes."
